OPPORTUNITIES START HERE

“Winning is not everything, but making the effort to win is.”
- Vince Lombardi

This is a special time of year for each student-athlete, coach, administrator, and college affiliated individual to celebrate his or her team’s achievements. I encourage each of you to leave all of your efforts on the playing field and do this with the highest sportsmanship, effort, and college sense of pride. The hardest part of competing for a national championship is simply getting there and each of you have already conquered that challenge, so a special congratulations on that achievement.

This opportunity may only come once, so cherish these moments. Each of you are physically and mentally prepared to earn the right to call yourself a National Champion, so value and appreciate all of the acts of support that led you here. Remember to maintain your integrity and character, as this will represent a solid foundation of success for years to follow. Life will pass you by very quickly, so embellish the moments and find ways to open future doors for those who follow your footsteps.

You have worked hard and invested greatly to get to this stage, but remember what the great Michael Jordan had to say about winning championships. "Talent wins games, but teamwork and intelligence win championships." So go forward with passion and commitment to yourself and your team – the next championship is only a few games away.

Best of luck,

Dr. Christopher Parker

Dear Visitors:

On behalf of the city council and myself, welcome to Oxford. We hope that you will experience our city and the surrounding area in new and exciting ways during your visit here.

We have so much to do in Oxford and the surrounding area. I will encourage you to check out our kayaking trail that is right across the street from Choccolocco Park, play disc golf around the park, or even visit one of our retail or dining establishments at the Oxford Exchange, Oxford Commons or Quintard Mall. We even have other things that the city of Oxford is still doing. The Oxford Performing Arts Center is also located in historic downtown Oxford, we have a free art gallery inside the main entrance for you to browse through. We have much more to offer than just that, so I hope you will take advantage of some of the things that Oxford is known for.

In conclusion, I am glad that you are here. Good luck in your tournament and enjoy your time here in Oxford, Alabama.

Kindest Regards,

Alton Craft

A photograph of the Choccolocco Park sign at sunset. The sign is a long, low wall made of stacked stones with the words "CHOCOLOCCO PARK" in large, white, sans-serif capital letters. Behind the sign are three tall flagpoles. The central one has a large American flag, while the two flanking ones have smaller flags. In the background, there are stadium lights and a clear sky with a warm orange and yellow glow from the setting sun.
