

CHEMICAL MANUFACTURING TECHNICIAN 1

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Ability to perform all assigned Chemical Manufacturing duties with minimal supervision and per site, local, and federal requirements.
- Ability to operate pumps and valves, monitor tanks levels and temperatures, perform pH and PPM testing.
- Complete mix tank preparation and operation, chemical formulation, blending, filtration, and supply to production lines.
- Update quality records, to include logbooks, checklists, batch records, and mixing tank status boards.
- Assist Quality Assurance and Production to ensure proper coordination and execution of manufacturing activities.
- Participate in product and process investigations, corrective, and preventive actions (CAPAs), and continuous improvement activities.
- Perform cleaning-in-place activities, preventative maintenance checks and filter replacement.
- Responsible for adhering to site safety objectives.
- Report issues related to safety, product, process, equipment, facility, and utilities to the team lead and engineering department.
- Ability to cross-train.
- Perform other assigned additional duties.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- HS/GED or higher education required with experience working as a Chemical Manufacturing Technician or other related field.
- Display a proficiency to perform all tasks required of a Chemical Manufacturing Technician.
- Comfortable working with chemicals, i.e., acids, bases, chlorine, caustic potash, nitrile butadiene rubber, etc.
- Demonstrate a mechanical aptitude with troubleshooting skills.
- Strong interpersonal skills and the ability to work as a cohesive team member or leader.
- Working knowledge of industry and regulatory standards/ guidelines.
- Ability to interpret the metric system in weight and volume measurements.
- Clearly speak, read, write, and comprehend the English language.
- Adept to standing, walking, and climbing stairs for up to 12-hours
- Capable to work in a noisy, hot, and humid environment.
- Willing to work a Pitman Schedule (3-2-2-3), days and nights
- Able to lift and move compounds weighing 30 lbs. or greater.