

Tuscaloosa Academy— 2023–2024 School Year

Reading Lists for Individual English Classes

Reading is an important aspect of any college preparatory education. As such, Tuscaloosa Academy requires students to read a variety of challenging, thought-provoking, and inspirational texts. Parents interested in ordering books before the school year should consider that some changes may occur to any proposed books on the following lists. If you have questions about which edition to order or when to order any given book, please feel free to contact the teacher assigned to the class.
