

Debbie Nothdurft

Debbie Nothdurft has been a board member of Historic Main Street Oxford since its inception in 2014. Born in Clay County, Alabama and raised in Oxford, AL, Debbie is a retired Oxford City School's educator and administrator of 44 years. Before she was an educator and administrator, she attended Oxford High School. Debbie graduated with her bachelor's in mathematics and English from Jacksonville State University. She received her master's and AA in Education Administration from the University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Along with serving on the board of directors, she is a member of Oxford City Schools Education Foundation and Oxford Women's Club. Debbie is an active member and elder at Dodson Memorial Presbyterian Church. In her pastime, she enjoys reading, cooking, and spending time with her family. Debbie is the wife to Ted Nothdurft. She says regarding why she serves on the board, "Oxford has been central in my upbringing and in my professional life. I respect the people and the traditions."
