On behalf of the thirty-six fraternity chapters that make up the Interfraternity Council, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the Capstone of Higher Education. The University of Alabama is one of the most prestigious academic institutions in the nation, with arguably the best resources available. The relationships cultivated between administrators and students, along with countless organizations and experiences obtained through IFC fraternities help result in an unparalleled student experience. Perhaps the most notable factor is the level of excellence consistently achieved throughout the Greek community, as Greek members constantly maintain higher academic standards, retention rates, and initial job placement after graduation than those not affiliated with Greek life. The University has been positively impacted by the prestigious Greek men and women in which you will hopefully join the ranks.

The Fraternity and Sorority community at The University of Alabama has a tradition rich in history and campus involvement. Since the founding of the University's first fraternity in 1847, the Greek Community has flourished. Joining a fraternity means lifelong commitment and is a decision that you should not take lightly. With that lifelong commitment also comes lifelong relationships and benefits. Each Fraternity offers a unique experience for you to grow as a leader in your scholarly and philanthropic endeavors. With roughly 4000 members currently involved within thirty-six IFC fraternities on campus, our individual members, chapters, facilities, and charitable donations are among the most premier in the nation.

Whether you are a parent, a prospective fraternity member, or currently affiliated with one of our chapters, I hope this guide will answer any questions you may have. If not, please do not hesitate to contact myself, chapter presidents, chapter recruitment chairmen, or other members of the Interfraternity Council. I look forward to the opportunity to meet you all in the fall.

Sincerely,

Eli Pilger

IFC President

Dear Potential New Member,

We appreciate your interest in IFC Fraternity Recruitment. For the past 175 years, Greek life has been a pillar of the Capstone. It has been responsible for much of the rich history of this University. With the help of the 36 chapters which make up the Alabama Interfraternity Council, we have created an informational guide to help you throughout your recruitment process. This guide includes each chapter's unique characteristics and allows you to gather insight on the differences between our chapters here at The University of Alabama. We hope this recruitment guide is beneficial and informative.

The first step every potential new member must take is registration for IFC recruitment. You can find this under the “Recruitment” tab on our website, www.universityofalabamaifc.com. Through registration, recruitment chairs will be able to access your contact information. If you have not been contacted by any recruitment chairs, please use this guide to initiate the process. This is an exciting time for you, as thousands of active brothers and alumni can attest to the value of joining a fraternity at The University of Alabama. The recruitment process is an amazing opportunity to meet new people and get involved as an incoming student. I hope that you take full advantage of this opportunity and get the chance to experience the greatness of Greek life here at The University of Alabama. Myself and all the other members of the IFC Executive Council are here to help you every step of the way. I look forward to getting a chance to meet you all. This school is where legends are made; leave a legacy behind that you and your family will be proud of. Welcome to the best possible Greek Life experience!

Please feel free to contact me or any IFC members with questions regarding the recruitment process. I hope you enjoy your time at the Capstone and find the fraternity that best fits you.

About IFC Fraternities at UA

The Interfraternity Council (IFC) serves as the governing body for the 36 fraternities at The University of Alabama that are primarily associated with the North American Interfraternity Conference (NIC). For more than 175 years, fraternities have excelled in academics, leadership, athletics, and service. The University of Alabama is known for its strong Greek system and commitment to excellence. The IFC serves its members by sponsoring several enriching programs throughout the year. IFC continually works with the Panhellenic Association, the National Pan-Hellenic Council, and the United Greek Council to further strengthen and support the UA Greek Community's values and vision.

Council Award of Distinction

The North American Interfraternity Conference's Council Award of Distinction recognizes Interfraternity Councils (IFCs) that excel in operations and positively impact their member chapters, the fraternity/sorority community and host institutions. One Community in the nation is selected annually, and our IFC was the recipient of this award in 2018 for our efforts ensuring safety and a creating a culture of care within our campus.

Outstanding Social Organization

The Outstanding Social Organization Award was awarded to the Interfraternity Council in the Spring of 2023 at the Exemplo Capstone Award Ceremony. It honors the contributions of campus organizations to service and leadership within and outside of the UA community. These are the highest honors that can be bestowed upon student organizations and individuals in regard to campus leadership and service.

Leadership & Career Opportunity

Becoming involved in a Greek organization provides students with the chance to experience different leadership opportunities on campus. Our organizations encourage their members to be heavily involved with our 600+ campus organizations. Each Greek organization allows their members to take on leadership positions within their chapter that will serve as a beneficial bridge to becoming leaders on campus. Alumni relationships for each chapter serves as opportunities to network and connect with older members. Alumni open up opportunities to mentor the members of their chapter and equip them with the necessary tools to be successful after college.

Scholarship & Academics

Here at The University of Alabama, our fraternities hold their members to high academic standards. Since Fall 2020, the average GPA of the 36 IFC chapters was 3.35 whereas the average GPA for all undergraduate men was 3.25. This puts the Interfraternity Council average GPA higher than the undergraduate men GPA for the last 20 out of 21 semesters. Most Fraternities offer resources, including academic advisors, study hours, and specific academic plans to help members do the best they can scholastically.

Philanthropy & Service

Philanthropy and service play a large role in the fraternity experience at UA. Every chapter has philanthropic efforts that range from fundraisers to service days within the community. Individual members are encouraged to get involved with chapter philanthropic and service efforts, as well as explore other opportunities to get involved within the community. The Interfraternity Council supports chapter specific initiatives and additionally provides opportunities to give back to the campus community. Recently, the IFC has held events benefitting the Women and Gender Resource Center on campus, UA's Counseling Center, West Alabama Food Bank, and Live Strong Foundation.

Brotherhood

Greek fraternities were founded as a network of support for men who went through similar experiences. The fraternity is a great way to enhance the general college experience through brotherhood and friendship. Brotherhood means building bonds between members of the Greek Community and working towards the shared goal of a better campus for all students. Brotherhood does not end once our undergraduate members leave campus. Our Greek Community individually establishes lifelong relationships.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Question: Will I need to move in early to take part in IFC recruitment?

Potential New Members who are interested in joining a fraternity have the option to move in on August 11th, 2024 to participate in formal recruitment opportunities, potential New Members who have already received a bid to a fraternity do not need to move in on August 11th, 2024. Chapters should not request or require that any New Member or Potential New Member arrive on campus prior to their selected move-in dates. All move-in arrangements and registrations should be made through the Office of Housing & Residential Communities. If you are interested in learning more about your housing options, and to schedule your move-in date, please visit the Housing & Residential Communities website (<https://housing.sa.ua.edu/>) or you can call their office at (888)-498-BAMA or (205)-348-6676.

Question: Do I need letters of recommendation for IFC recruitment?

IFC fraternities do not require letters of recommendation for recruitment, although it is recommended to utilize any friend or family connections to reach out to chapters. A letter of recommendation does not guarantee that a bid for membership will be extended.

Question: I am coming for Bama Bound, what do I need to do for recruitment opportunities?

We encourage you to reach out to the recruitment chairs of the chapters and let them know that you are participating in recruitment this year. IFC will be holding tabling events at Bama Bound sessions for the dates: June 25th/26th & July 9th/11th. If you're interested in a particular organization, and they are not holding an event while you are at Bama Bound, reach out to the recruitment chairmen and set up a meeting to introduce yourself.

Question: What do I do if am out-of-state and cannot visit over the summer?

It's OK to not be able to visit campus during the summer. We encourage men to begin to contact recruitment chairs before arriving on campus, and schedule times to meet them in person, as soon as you get to campus. Be sure to take advantage of the early move-in opportunity and the formal process. New members are still being recruited through the start of classes.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Question: What do my chapter dues pay for?

Dues cover costs associated with fraternity membership, including meal plans, social events, leadership development, and other programs. As a freshman, your required UA meal plan will be downgraded to the Greek 55 meal plan, upon accepting a bid and being added to the chapter roster of a fraternity with a chapter-required meal plan. Living in the house is a separate fee, but dues are inclusive, in that they cover most every other aspect of joining a fraternity.

Question: What if I get to campus and haven't yet received a bid, is there anything else I should be doing?

If you have arrived on campus and have not received a bid, don't worry, as you still have time to join a fraternity. First you will want to contact the recruitment chairmen for chapters you are interested in and see what events they have planned. Additionally, you will meet many new friends during your first few weeks at UA and some of them may also be going through recruitment. The most important part of recruitment is meeting new people and finding the chapter in which you feel the most comfortable.

Question: Do I have to join as a first semester freshman, or can I wait until the spring or my sophomore/junior year?

We recommend joining a fraternity in the fall semester of your freshman year. The transition to college from high school can be difficult, and getting involved on campus, especially in a fraternity, can help to ease the transition. Also, many students point to their early involvement in a fraternity as a key factor in developing leadership skills and furthering their campus involvement. If you do decide to join a fraternity after your freshman year, chapters will take sophomore and upper class new members.

Question: When does the IFC's new member education period start/end?

The Alabama Interfraternity Council requires that all new member education programs begin on August 21, 2024, and end no later than October 2, 2024. Chapters may initiate before or after the October date on a case by case basis. However, all new member activities, programs, and education must be completed by Wednesday, October 2nd.

About IFC Recruitment

IFC fraternities may give out bids for membership during the spring and summer months before the start of classes. Although the Alabama Interfraternity Council does not host formal recruitment rounds, recruits will have the opportunity to meet and interact with chapters during Bama Bound, and through the structured recruitment period. The schedule for this can be found at www.universityofalabamaifc.com.

In order to officially accept a bid from any organization, you must be registered for recruitment with the IFC. By registering for recruitment your name and information is made available to all the IFC fraternities. However, registering for recruitment does not guarantee a bid for membership. Remember, recruitment is about getting to know the chapters and letting the chapters get to know you. It is important that you make an effort to meet as many fraternity men as possible throughout the recruitment process. You can register for IFC Fall 2023 Recruitment by clicking below.

Recruitment Rules

All men interested in receiving an invitation for membership in any of the 36 IFC fraternity chapters at The University of Alabama are required to register with the Alabama Interfraternity Council through our website. There is a $175 charge to register for recruitment. The registration fee covers the costs of recruitment events, a t-shirt, and the maintenance of the potential new member database. Your information will become available to all IFC fraternities at The University of Alabama participating in IFC recruitment. However, registering for recruitment does not guarantee that chapters will contact you about specific recruitment events. Therefore, it is recommended that you contact the recruitment chairmen of individual chapters that you are interested in learning more about. For a list of chapters and their contact information, please visit www.universityofalabamaifc.com.

In order to accept a bid for membership, you MUST log into the Campus Director system and accept your bid. If a bid has been extended to you, when you log in, you will see a drop-down menu for “Bids Extended.” Select the chapter you would like to accept a bid from, and click Submit. If you do not have a list of bids extended, you have not received a bid. You can receive multiple bids throughout this process. Should you receive a bid from a chapter, it does not become official until August 19, 2023. Once you accept a bid from a chapter, you cannot accept a bid from any other IFC organization during the Fall Recruitment period.

For those individuals that have not received a bid prior to arriving on campus in the fall, the Alabama Interfraternity Council will be hosting a number of recruitment events beginning on August 12th. These events will occur in the evening and all IFC fraternities will be participating. During these events, anyone interested in learning about an IFC fraternity may visit a chapter, meet its members, and pursue membership in that organization. If you receive a bid during this period, you will need to accept your bid through the Campus Director system.

All recruitment or rush activities associated with any chapter should be non-alcoholic. No recruitment or rush activities associated with any chapter should be held at or in conjunction with a tavern or alcohol distributor as defined in NIC Alcohol & Drug Guidelines.

What is Formal Recruitment?

Starting this year in the Fall of 2024, each Potential New Member coming to the University of Alabama will be able to arrive to campus early to participate in formal recruitment. Here is a breakdown of the process so that you have the best opportunity to succeed when you first arrive on-campus.

Potential new members coming to campus will be given the opportunity to move in early on August 13th, 2023, with an additional housing cost of $159. However, Potential New Members who have already received a bid to a fraternity do not need to move in on August 13th, 2023. During this week, each of the Interfraternity Council affiliated chapters will have Open House events where potential new members can openly go around to each on-campus house, as well as going to Bryce Lawn to meet with off-campus fraternities. These open house events will start to take place on Tuesday, August 15th, and end a couple days later on Friday, August 18th. This way, we are able to ensure that each student will be given the right tools to meet with as many active members in our community as possible, giving them the best opportunity to network and increase their probability of receiving a bid.

Alpha Delta Phi

ΑΔΦ

In 1850, Alpha Delta Phi was established as the second Greek-Letter Social Fraternity at The University of Alabama. After a century-long absence the chapter was refounded in 2013 and began to grow rapidly, returning to a house on-campus in 2019. The Alabama Chapter is dedicated to developing the entire man: morally, socially, and intellectually. The brothers in our chapter come from all walks of life, and take pride in working together to push the brotherhood and Tuscaloosa community forward. Home to many alumni including former presidents, justices, CEO's and war heroes, Alpha Delta Phi is focused on molding a true brotherhood that not only enhances the college experience, but also continues past one's schooling. We are looking for driven and passionate young men who want to be a part of something bigger than themselves. New members will gain the confidence and discipline needed to exceed as college students and as men in the world at large.

We are very proud that our chapter has overcome the adversity of being a relatively new chapter on campus (re-chartered in 2011) to become what we are today. Over the past year, Alpha Sigma Phi has grown significantly and heavily increased our efforts toward service and philanthropy. We are a smaller chapter than many on campus, creating a tightly-knit group of men who know each other inside and out and will always be there as a support system for our members. In our members, we look for dedication in not just academics, but also in brotherhood, extracurricular activities, and service in the community. We want men who are personable, eager to learn, and ready to join a supportive community that will follow them throughout life. Everyone has something different to offer, and we're looking forward to finding out what your something is.

We are most proud of our chapter's ability to lead on campus. We push our brothers to not only participate on campus but also to be leaders. We currently have brothers in leadership positions in virtually every aspect of UA including Al's Pals organization, UA Dance Marathon, University Stewards, Capstone Men & Women, as well as numerous honor societies. Our brothers do so many great things on this campus such as lead worship teams, participate in investment banking interest groups, and serve the local Tuscaloosa community. It is this variety that makes our chapter so strong. In new members, we are looking for passion. We are looking for young men who are passionate about their academics, care deeply for others, and want to make a difference in the UA community.

We look for ambitious guys that are leaders who take initiative to get involved on campus.

We also look for motivated individuals that strive to be excellent in the classroom. The last main quality we look for in potential members is simply being enjoyable to be around. We all spend a lot of time together and want members who will add value to a gathering.

At more than 120 brothers, Delta Chi has the largest number of members relative to our house's location, and the chapters overall average GPA currently stands at 3.07.
