NO.	ADDRESS	NAME	YEAR BUILT	YEAR DESTROYED	CAUSE	NOTES	PHOTOS
1	204 East Choccolocco Street	Pace House	c. 1840	c. 2014	Fire	One of Oxford's top oldest homes at the time it burned. The structure retained a high level of integrity maintaining many original features- front doors and shutters. The Long, Barr, and Pace families resided in the home. The home subsequently burned after a bag of charcoal caught on fire in the rear of the residence in 2014.
2	101 East 2 nd Street	Male Academy	bet. 1840 - 1850	c. 2017	Demolished	Originally served as the Oxford Male Academy constructed c. 1840 – 1850; later altered as a residence. Owned by Dr. McCraw and Mitchell family. Used as rental property for many years. Torn down c. 2017.
3	300 Ross Street	Ross – Connelly House	bet. 1860 - 1870	2020	Demolished	Constructed between c. 1860 – 1870 possibly by Gen. Albert H. Ross. The style of the home was a mixture between late Federal and Greek Revival. Jessie Clark bought the house in the early 1900s. In 1943, Clark's daughter, Ruth Clark Conolly purchased the home. It was used as a boarding house for many decades.
