Policy / Purpose:

It is the policy of Wallace Community College – Selma (WCCS) to articulate the policies and procedures that govern the administration of financial aid. The Financial Aid Office provides students with accurate information on available financial aid to meet the cost of education at WCCS, by assisting students in applying for and receiving financial aid in a timely manner and maintaining regulatory compliance with funding agencies to ensure institutional eligibility. This document has been developed to reflect WCCS's current practices in the delivery of financial aid. It is intended to be used as a reference for existing staff. In addition, appropriate portions of the policy may be made available to students, other WCCS personnel, or state and federal agency representatives who request to review it.

Scope:

This policy applies to all WCCS students and prospective students.
