

MARCH 2023

Succ It Up

We would like to welcome Succ It Up to Historic Downtown Oxford! This new business offers various succulents, houseplants, and gifts. You can also find items from other small businesses as vendors in their shop located at 426 Main Street.

Oxford Lumber

Oxford Lumber recently celebrated its 65th anniversary of being in business!

Oxford Lumber, located at 1400 Barry Street, is a locally owned hardware store that also carries building supplies, home improvement supplies, window replacement, and lumber, and we do special orders.

Market on Main

Applications are currently being accepted for our 2023 Market on Main. The market will be held the first and third Saturday of each month from April to September from 8 AM - 1 PM at Simmons. Applications can be found here.

Food Truck Friday on Main

Food Truck Friday is held the second Friday from April 2023 to October 2023 from 4 PM - 9 PM at Simmons Park in Historic Downtown Oxford. Each Friday will include a variety of mobile food vendors, live entertainment, lawn games, bounce houses, and a free movie for the whole family!

Oxford's 171st Birthday Celebration

On the evening of Tuesday, February 14, 2023, the City of Oxford officially celebrated its 171st birthday— a special thanks to the Oxford Arts Council for coordinating the event.

Mayor Alton Craft, City Council Member Steven Waits, and Arts Council Member Cindy Williams are pictured below at the celebration.

World Changers Application

Apply for the World Changers program by Friday, March 17th!

World Changers' mission is to get into neighborhoods and help homeowners with what they can't do independently. They do this - all while providing meaningful mission experiences for student ministries! Their 2023 project will be July 24 - 28. Homeowners within the city limits of Oxford can pick up an application at the City Clerk's office in city hall at 145 Hamric Drive East.
