

2025 YEAR-END REPORT

Historic Main Street Oxford (HMSO) is an economic and community development organization that focuses on the Four Point Approach strategy of Organization, Promotion, Design, and Economic Vitality as outlined by Main Street America. The Four Point Approach makes Main Street an effective tool for a community-based, volunteer-driven, grassroots revitalization effort. HMSO was created in 2014 when Oxford became a Designated Main Street Community by Main Street Alabama.

VISION STATEMENT

Historic Downtown Oxford will become Northeast Alabama's destination for arts, dining, entertainment, shopping, and special events.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Historic Main Street Oxford is to enhance downtown vibrancy, preserve its history, empower its community of business, and foster a center of activity for residents and visitors.

In February 2025, Historic Main Street Oxford coordinated its annual meeting at Spring Street Station, welcoming downtown business owners, community leaders, and key stakeholders. The well-attended event featured a citywide update from Mayor Alton Craft, highlighting current initiatives and future priorities for Oxford. The meeting also included the presentation of the 2024 Downtown Business of the Year and Employee of the Year awards, recognizing outstanding contributions to the vitality of downtown.

In March 2025, Main Street Alabama staff and local program directors convened in Montgomery for Main Street Alabama's Day on the Hill. During this event, Hunter Gentry, Executive Director of Historic Main Street Oxford, met with Senator Keith Kelley and Representative Chad Robertson to advocate for the continued revitalization of downtown Oxford and the importance of supporting small businesses. Later that month, Historic Main Street Oxford joined Main Street Alabama and fellow program directors in Foley, Alabama, for a statewide training focused on professional development and best practices.

Historic Main Street Oxford expanded its preservation and tourism efforts in April 2025 by coordinating two Historic Walking Tours on Main Street. This initiative was conducted in partnership with the Alabama Department of Tourism's Walking Tours program and provided participants with an engaging opportunity to learn more about Oxford's architectural and cultural history.

In May 2025, Historic Main Street Oxford partnered with the Oxford Arts Council to launch Heroes on Main: Oxford's Hometown Veterans banner program, which honors forty-four local veterans. A dedication ceremony was held at Simmons Park in collaboration with the Oxford

Police Department and the Oxford Fire Department, underscoring the community's commitment to honoring service and sacrifice.

Downtown beautification efforts continued in July 2025 when the Grounds Crew from Choccolocco Park completed a landscaping project in the downtown district. This project was made possible through grant funding from Main Street Alabama and the Alabama Power Foundation. That same month, Historic Main Street Oxford partnered with Figure Eight, a local videography firm, to produce a promotional video showcasing Downtown Oxford.

Throughout 2025, Historic Main Street Oxford spearheaded several additional initiatives aimed at strengthening the downtown district. The program organized five downtown litter cleanup days in March, May, June, August, and September, promoting community pride and beautification. Historic Main Street Oxford also coordinated four business development workshops: Oxford Zoning 101: A Real Estate Agents Guide (April 2025), From Idea to Income: Starting a Business (May 2025), Finance Fundamentals for Small Business (June 2025), and Grow Your Brand: Small Business Marketing Strategies (August 2025). These workshops were made possible through partnerships with Jacksonville State University's Small Business & Development Center, First Bank of Alabama, GoSocial Marketing, Mizzell Marketing, and Freestyle Graphix.

In celebration of Oxford's historic character, Historic Main Street Oxford sponsored ten bronze plaques recognizing significant historic buildings that exemplify the city's architectural heritage, preservation efforts, and community significance. The plaques were installed at the following locations: Haynes & Company Warehouse (18 West Choccolocco Street), Service Drug Company Building (502 Main Street), Tate Building (700 Main Street), Oxford Coin Laundry Building (30 East Choccolocco Street), Walker-Lynch Medical Office (7 Snow Street), Walker House (231 East Choccolocco Street), Oxford Baptist Church (95 East Choccolocco Street), Oxford Methodist Church (230 Snow Street), Dodson Memorial Presbyterian Church (801 Main Street), and the Oxford Railway Depot (50 Spring Street).
