SERVICES GUIDE

Dear Bulldog Family,

Another spring at Dudy Noble Field is upon us, and with it comes a renewed sense of excitement for Mississippi State Baseball. There is nothing quite like baseball season in Starkville, and we are thrilled to welcome you back to Polk-DeMent Stadium for the 2026 campaign. Mississippi State Baseball has long been defined by excellence. With 41 NCAA Tournament appearances, 12 trips to Omaha, and a national championship, our program's history sets a powerful standard – one that challenges us to compete relentlessly and represent the M-over-S with pride at the highest level of college baseball.

This year ushers in an exciting new era for our program as we begin our first season under head coach Brian O'Connor. Coach O'Connor's leadership, experience, and championship pedigree make him a tremendous fit for Mississippi State. His commitment to player development and competitive excellence positions our program for continued success, and we are excited about the future under his direction.

Of course, the heart of Mississippi State Baseball has always been its fans. The passion you bring to Dudy Noble Field creates an environment unmatched anywhere in the country and gives our Bulldogs a true home-field advantage. With 33 home games on the schedule, we look forward to sharing countless moments together and continuing the traditions that make this place special. Make no mistake about it – 33 home games is the start. We have invested and taken the critical steps to ensure we don't stop at 33 home games. The expectation is to host postseason play in the greatest ballpark in America.

Our Bulldog Suites staff, led by McKinnon Skeen, remains dedicated to providing a first-class game-day experience. Whether you are returning for another season or visiting for the first time, we want you to feel welcomed, appreciated, and part of the Bulldog Family.

Thank you for your unwavering support of Mississippi State Athletics. Your commitment makes a lasting impact on our student-athletes and helps drive success in competition, in the classroom, and beyond.

We look forward to seeing you at the ballpark this spring as we cheer on the Bulldogs and begin an exciting new chapter in Mississippi State Baseball.

HAIL STATE!
