2. Short-term rentals shall comply with the standards in Sec. 10.8-13, Noise in residential districts, of the City Code.
3. Off-street parking spaces may be provided on driveways or within a parking area on the property.
4. The property shall contain a dwelling able to be occupied.
5. Commercial events or other large events such as concerts or weddings are prohibited on the property.
6. The rental of units for a period of less than 24 hours is prohibited

Sec. 25-101.c.4.iv.g Decision Criteria

When deciding on an application for a special exception use permit to operate a short-term rental use, the Zoning Board of Adjustment shall consider the following factors, in addition to the general decision-making standards in Sec. 25-39.d:

1. Whether the property is permanently occupied and leased in its entirety to one party for periods of at least 30 consecutive nights;
2. Whether the short-term rental use is proposed to be or will be the primary or accessory use of the dwelling;
3. If a short-term rental is proposed for a site that has been previously used for a short-term rental, the number of complaints, violations, and other departures from the standards of this Ordinance and the City Code that have occurred on the property; and
4. As part of its evaluation on the character of surrounding development and the neighborhood and other potentially adverse impacts of the use, the characteristics of the neighborhood and surrounding properties including the underlying zone district, surrounding land uses, the number of nearby short-term rental uses, the topography, access, and similar factors.

Sec. 25-101.h. Standards specific to commercial uses, short-term rentals.

1. The applicant shall provide the city with information regarding the number of nights which the premises was used as a short-term rental. If the city determines that the applicant has not rented the premises as a short-term rental in accordance with the spirit of this section, the city shall notify the applicant that the business license will not be renewed and, if the short-term rental was subject to a special exception use permit, that the special exception use permit shall be deemed null and void. In addition, the city shall not issue a new business license for short-term rental of the dwelling unit for at least one year from the date of notification of the decision to not renew the business license and void the special exception use permit.
2. In addition, if the use was permitted in accordance with a special exception use permit, the city shall determine whether there have been any verified complaints or violations. If there have been no verified complaints or violations, the city may renew the business license for one year if the business license has not be renewed and the special exception use permit has not been voided in accordance with subsection (1) above. If the city determines there have been verified complaints and violations, the city shall notify the applicant that the business license will not be renewed and that the special exception use permit shall be deemed cancelled.

3. Following cancellation of a special exception use permit for a short-term rental, an applicant may apply for a new special exception use permit for a short-term rental in accordance with section 25-39, special exception use permit, subject to the restrictions of this subsection.

SUMMARY

The petitioner is requesting a special exception to allow the short-term rental of a dwelling. Chris Lyons will be the primary contact and will be available 24 hours a day in case of an emergency. The petitioner currently manages one short term rental property in Tuscaloosa. The house is equipped with exterior cameras and keypad locks. The house is not owner occupied. The house will remain vacant when it is not rented short term. The house has 3 bedrooms and two 2 bathrooms. The petitioner is requesting 6 adults and 3 vehicles.

The petitioner was approved to operate a short-term rental at the April 28th, 2025, ZBA meeting. When the petitioner applied for renewal of their business license, it was noted that the property had been rented for 101 nights in 2025 during the 30-night probationary period. In accordance with Sec. 25-101. h. the previous special exception use permit was deemed null and void by the city.

If approved, the petitioner is requesting that the ZBA waive the 30-night probationary period and allow the property to be rented for greater than 45 nights per year.

Office of Urban Development, Planning Division: If approved, staff recommends 6 adults / 3 vehicles based on existing driveway /off-street parking and occupancy as it relates to parking.

Office of Urban Development, Codes and Development Services Division: No violations found or complaints received.

Office of Urban Development, Building and Inspections Division: No comment

Office of the City Engineer: No comment

Fire and Rescue Department, Fire Administration: No comment
