December 2025

A Word from Hunter...

The holidays are here, and downtown Oxford is glowing with the magic of the season! We wrapped up a busy year and kicked off the season with an unforgettable Christmas on Main and Tree Lighting Ceremony—a day so full of activities, sights, and community spirit that it felt straight out of a Hallmark movie. From carolers and cocoa to twinkling lights and family fun, it truly showcased the heart of our community.

As we close out the year, we're finishing strong with four ribbon cuttings in the next two weeks. We are thrilled to welcome new businesses and organizations whose energy, creativity, and services will add to the ever-growing vitality of our historic downtown. These entrepreneurs and organizations are investing in Oxford's future, and we look forward to celebrating each of them.

Mark your calendars—the Oxford Christmas Parade, coordinated by Oxfordfest, will take place on Thursday, December 11, 2025, at 6 PM. It's always one of the most cherished traditions of the season, and we hope to see you lined up along the route enjoying the lights, floats, and holiday cheer.

During the weeks ahead, we encourage you to shop downtown and support our local mom-and-pop businesses. Your support is essential to the vibrancy, character, and economic vitality of our district—especially during the holiday season. Whether you're picking up a gift, grabbing a bite to eat, or simply enjoying a stroll, every visit makes a difference.

Wishing you a joyful, festive, and inspiring holiday season in Historic Downtown Oxford!

Christmas on Main

Christmas on Main brought festive cheer and holiday magic to Historic Downtown Oxford! Our annual holiday open house welcomed families, friends, and visitors for an afternoon filled with community spirit and seasonal celebration. Downtown merchants offered special promotions and holiday deals, while Simmons Park came alive with live entertainment that kept the Christmas energy going all day long.

The event concluded with a Christmas Tree Lighting Ceremony, creating a warm and memorable moment for everyone who gathered to welcome the holiday season together.

Thank you to all who joined us for Christmas on Main — we hope it added a little extra sparkle to your holiday season!
