Message from the Director

Dear Friends,

My service as PARA's Executive Director is certainly the most rewarding position of my career. I believe I have the best job in town - working with citizens, elected leaders, the PARA board of directors and PARA professionals - making life better for the people who live in Tuscaloosa County. Ultimately, my job and that of our staff is to provide opportunities for people to have more fun, improve their fitness and to acquire skills and knowledge through leisure and cultural activities. When we succeed in these things we make Tuscaloosa an attractive place for families to live and business and industry to locate. Our goal is to help make Tuscaloosa the best place to live in the Southeastern United States.

The year 2013 was an extraordinary year. Exciting plans have been made for our parks and facilities that will positively affect our citizens and community for decades to come.

Perhaps the most notable event of the year was the opening of Faucett Brothers Activity Center, the sixth such facility to join the family of PARA properties. It was designed as a new model of fitness and business for PARA. In its first year of operation the new model has proved to be a resounding success.

Additional highlights in 2013 were marked by the opening of the Dinah Washington Cultural Arts Center operated by the Arts Council. It is a beautifully restored space which serves as an anchor for arts and culture. Greens renovations at Ol' Colony Golf represented the first major upgrades since the course opened and demonstrated a financial collaboration from the City, County and the University of Alabama.

Worthy of note were fitness equipment upgrades for Belk and Phelps Centers, pool renovation at the McAbee Center, a disc golf course at Palmore Park and a bike park in Sokol Park.

This year our elected leaders worked together to approve funding agreements to renovate park sports facilities. The groundwork has been laid for major improvements or renovations planned for the very near future. Palmore, Sokol, Bowers, Jaycee, Snow Hinton, Rosedale, Hurricane Creek and Evans-Roshell Parks all have upgrades in the works. There will be major additions and improvements to the McDonald Hughes Center and Bobby Miller Center.

For PARA, 2013 has been a year of hard work and planning. We look forward to seeing the fruits of these labors in 2014. Let's Play!

PARA's Mission

To enrich our community through exciting recreational and cultural opportunities

Established through a legislative act in 1969, Tuscaloosa County Park & Recreation Authority is a county-wide, non-profit agency funded by the City of Tuscaloosa, Tuscaloosa County Commission and City of Northport. Additional funding is supported by PARA fees and income and donations to the PARA Foundation. It is governed by an eight-member board of directors who are appointed by three local governments and two school boards.

PARA maintains 26 parks and six boat landings, six Activity Centers, an award winning 18-hole golf course and approximately 2,200 acres of land spread throughout Tuscaloosa County. PARA properties include walking trails, a multipurpose arena, ball fields, garden plots, playgrounds, indoor and outdoor swimming facilities, pavilions, Veterans Memorial Park, Hurricane Creek Park and Ol' Colony Golf Complex which hosts The First Tee of Tuscaloosa.

PARA's Activity Centers offer the community indoor walking tracks, gymnasiums, workout facilities, meeting rooms and therapeutic pools. All amenities are open to the public and are either free or available for use with a fee. The variety of programs offered, coupled with subsidized rates make PARA a popular and essential part of the community.

PARA is constantly recreating itself to fit the needs and wants of the community. PARA offers parks, leisure activities and cultural arts. These diverse activities attract families and individuals of all ages and socio-economic levels. Because of PARA's broad audience, we have established a valued presence in Tuscaloosa County.

In order to keep participation and user costs economical, PARA relies on funding from the three governmental entities we serve. This funding fluctuates annually although we work hard to seek increased funding from each of these sources as the community grows.

In addition to generating about 36 percent of our overall operating budget through program fees and being fiscally frugal, PARA is often faced with difficult decisions. Until a permanent funding source is secured, PARA will be faced with year-to-year financial uncertainty which makes planning for the future challenging.

PARA FOUNDATION

The objectives and purposes of the PARA Foundation shall be to promote, assist, advance and strengthen efforts to improve the availability and quality of parks and recreational facilities and opportunities in Tuscaloosa County and specifically to aid and assist the Tuscaloosa County Park & Recreation Authority, the governing bodies of Tuscaloosa

County, and the cities located therein, and other agencies of state and local governments, in connection with the development, improvement, and maintenance of parks and recreational facilities, programs, and opportunities. The Foundation shall conduct its affairs as a cultural, educational and benevolent, not-for-profit corporation, expressly limited to religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes within the continental limits of the United States of America.

The arts, our park lands and a variety of recreational opportunities are necessary for all citizens of Tuscaloosa County to ensure a good quality of life. Contributions are tax-deductible to the amount allowed by law and can be made in memory or in honor of someone or designated for a specific program or project. The PARA Foundation balance was $279,679.46 as of September 30, 2013.

Veterans Memorial Park Endowment

The purpose of the Veterans Memorial Park Endowment is to raise funds with the principle being maintained in perpetuity and the annual earnings being allocated to enhance and maintain the park.

Located on McFarland Boulevard on the grounds of the former U.S. Army Northington General Hospital Chapel, the one-acre site has been retained in public ownership, with PARA's oversight. This historic site is mandated to have a beneficial public purpose.

The Veterans Monuments Park Association worked with representatives of local governments, PARA and the private sector to create this educational veterans park. To date, the majority of the costs have been donated by the private sector, including more than $100,000 of in-kind construction activity.

The Veterans Memorial Park Endowment is overseen by the Board of Directors of the PARA Foundation. Donors may make gifts to the PARA Foundation, designating it for the Veterans Endowment, at any time.

PARA ACTIVITY CENTERS

PARA has six multi-purpose centers conveniently located throughout the community. Each center has a gymnasium, exercise room, catering kitchen and rooms available to rent for meetings, parties, classes and other functions. Distinct center amenities include features such as indoor walking tracks, indoor therapeutic and or recreational pools.

Two levels of annual center membership are available for purchase. Membership options, casual user fees and rentals are all reasonably priced. Since beginning the service in August 1997 through September 2013, there have been 57,398 center memberships purchased.

Tuscaloosa Arts Council

The mission of The Arts Council is to promote and encourage the arts and humanities in Tuscaloosa County. The Arts Council serves as the umbrella organization for 50 Member Organizations, offers educational programs and manages both the historic Bama Theatre and Dinah Washington Cultural Arts Center. Member organizations are local nonprofit arts and cultural groups that contribute to the local arts community through their programming and educational services.

The Bama Theatre is a historic theatre located in downtown Tuscaloosa surrounded by restaurants and nightlife. The theatre has been a Tuscaloosa feature since 1938 and continues as a venue for entertainment and the arts. Art, educational, independent and foreign films are shown as part of the Bama Art House Movie Series. Film festival partnerships have included the Jewish Film Festival, the Black Maria Film Festival, Manhattan Short Film Festival and the German Film Festival.

The Council recognizes volunteers, educators and artists in the bi-annual Druid Arts Awards, and the Small Grants Program nurtures small and pilot arts activities. Bama Fanfare, SPECTRA and the Poetry Out Loud educational programs serve over 30,000 children annually. Annual exhibitions in the Junior League Gallery and the Greensboro Room gallery include the West Alabama Juried Show, the Visual Arts Achievement Awards and the Double Exposure Photography Competition.

In 2013 the organization opened the Dinah Washington Cultural Arts Center, located in the existing four-story 1903 Allen/Jemison building at the corner of Greensboro Avenue and 7th Street on the same block as the Bama Theatre. Venues in the facility include a black box theatre, The Arts Council Gallery, The University of Alabama Gallery, the Grand Hall, professional catering kitchen, conference room and office space. The space has hosted group and solo exhibits, concerts, musical theatre and weddings. In October 2013, The University of Alabama Law School presented U.S. Supreme Court Chief Justice Elena Kagan in the CAC. From meetings and luncheons to rehearsal dinners and weddings, the facility is available for rent throughout the year.

The dream of a championship public golf course for Tuscaloosa was realized with the opening of Ol' Colony Golf Complex in the year 2000. Within one year, it was named one of the "Top 5 Best New Public Courses in America" by Golf Digest. Since then the Jerry Pate designed course has continued to live up to this reputation.

The name Ol' Colony is a reference to the Boys Colony, a former home and farm for boys with disabilities. The 597-acre site is leased from the Alabama Department of Mental Health. Remaining acreage is ample enough for an additional 18 holes. Initial project funding came from a $3 million loan from the City of Tuscaloosa, a $3 million bond issue backed by the Tuscaloosa County Commission and private donations.

The year 2013 brought the first major renovations to the course since its opening. Renovations during the summer growing season included new MiniVerde Bermuda grass greens, close to 600 yards added to ten holes, lake improvements and tree removal to allow for openness and airflow. Jointly financed by the City of Tuscaloosa, the Tuscaloosa County Commission and the University of Alabama, each entity contributed $375,000 toward the approximately $1,125,000 project.

The First Tee of Tuscaloosa is dedicated to providing young people of all backgrounds the opportunity to develop life skills through golf and character education. Now in the fourteenth year, it has grown to serve participants on-site and in the community. The program served approximately 13,000 in City and County elementary schools, over 1,000 in community outreach programs and certified 383 on-site during 2013.

The Jerry Pate Golf Center at Ol' Colony is one of the top practice facilities in the nation and serves as the official home of The University of Alabama's golf programs boasting the 2012 NCAA national championship team for women and 2013 NCAA national championship team for men.

The Pro Shop is fully stocked with everything a golfer might want in brand name golf gear. The Diner features a generous menu of made-to-order breakfast and lunch appetizers and entrees. Alfresco dining on the patio makes for a memorable experience for golfers and non-golfers alike.

The Brion Hardin First Tee Teaching Facility at Ol' Colony is equipped with a Trackman Launch Monitor, V1 Pro Software and Explanar Plane System, an indoor putting area and two hitting bays for fittings and lessons. Individual and corporate rate lesson packages are available.

District Development

In 2013 the Tuscaloosa County Commission allocated $200,000 to Tuscaloosa County Park & Recreation Authority to be used in four districts for development. Each district received $50,000 to be spent during the fiscal year.

Since 1995 the District Development program has contributed $2,689,319.50 to community projects and the community contributed $5,044,280.73 in matching funds.

An Advisory Committee represents all four districts within Tuscaloosa County with a cross-section of citizens serving on a committee to review project requests. The committee makes recommendations to the PARA Board of Directors and final approval is made by the Tuscaloosa County Commission.

District Development Projects

October 1, 2012 - September 31, 2013

District 1: Northside Little League purchased bleachers, constructed an asphalt walking track and a field extension to comply with new Dixie Youth Baseball regulations. Tuscaloosa County High School football boosters installed a sprinkler system in practice fields and added a French drain under the track. Huntington Place Elementary School purchased and installed four outdoor basketball goals.

District 2: Brookwood High School received a complete overhaul of their football field including leveling, seeding and new fencing. Holt Elementary School received new playground equipment for their Pre-K program.

District 3: Taylorville Community Club installed bleachers and built bleacher covers at Hillcrest Middle School. Hillcrest High School received money for improvements to their indoor practice facility and a pavilion within their tennis complex.

District 4: Sipsey Valley High School completed lighting upgrades to their baseball and softball complex.
