POLICIES

ANTITRUST POLICY

The Tuscaloosa Association of REALTORS® is a not-for-profit organization. The Association is not organized to and may not play any role in the competitive decisions of its members or their employees, nor in any way restrict competition among members or potential members. Rather, it serves as a forum for a free and open discussion of diverse opinions without in any way attempting to encourage or sanction any particular business practice.

The Association provides a forum for exchange of ideas in a variety of settings including its annual meeting, educational programs, committee meetings, and Board Meetings. The Board of Directors recognizes the possibility that the Association and its activities could be viewed by some as an opportunity for anti-competitive conduct. Therefore, this policy statement clearly and unequivocally supports the policy of competition served by the antitrust laws and to communicate the Association's uncompromising policy to comply strictly in all respects with those laws.

While recognizing the importance of the principle of competition served by Antitrust laws, the Association also recognizes the severity of the potential penalties that might be imposed on not only the Association but its members as well in the event that certain conduct is found to violate the Antitrust laws. Should the Association or its members be involved in any violation of Federal/State Antitrust laws, such violation can involve both civil and criminal penalties that may include imprisonment as well as substantial fines for individuals and the Association, plus attorney fees. In addition, damage claims awarded to private parties in a civil suit are tripled for Antitrust violations. Given the severity of such penalties, the Board intends to take all necessary and proper measures to ensure that violations of Antitrust laws do not occur.

In order to ensure that the Association and its members comply with Antitrust laws, the following principles will be observed:

- The Association or any committee or activity of the Association shall not be used for the purpose of bringing about or attempting to bring about any understanding or agreement, written or oral, formal or informal, expressed or implied, among two or more members of other competitors with regard to prices or terms and conditions of contracts for services or products. Therefore, discussions and exchanges of information about such topics will not be permitted at Association meetings or other activities.
- There will be no discussions discouraging or withholding patronage or services from, or encouraging exclusive dealing with any supplier or purchaser or group of suppliers or purchasers of products or services, any actual or potential competitor or group of actual potential competitors, or any private or governmental entity.
- There will be no discussions about allocating or dividing geographic or service markets or customers.
- There will be no discussions about restricting, limiting, prohibiting, or sanctioning advertising or solicitation that is not false, misleading, deceptive, or directly competitive with Association products or services.
- There will be no discussions about discouraging entry into or competition in any segment of the marketplace.
- There will be no discussions about whether the practices of any member, actual or potential competitor, or other person are unethical or anti-competitive, unless the discussions or complaints follow the prescribed due process provisions of the Association's Bylaws.
- Certain activities of the Association and its members are deemed protected from Antitrust laws under the First Amendment right to petition government. The Antitrust exemption for these activities, referred to as the Noerr-Pennington Doctrine, protects ethical and proper actions or discussions by members designed to influence: (1) legislation at the National, State, or Local level,

(2) regulatory or policy-making activities (as opposed to commercial activities), or (3) decisions of judicial bodies. However, the exemption does not protect actions constituting a “sham” to cover anticompetitive conduct.

- Board Meetings will follow a written agenda. Minutes will be prepared after the meeting to provide a concise summary of important matters discussed and actions taken or conclusions reached.
- At informal discussions at the site of any Association meeting, all participants are expected to observe the same standards of personal conduct as are required of the Association in its compliance.

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

The protection of the Tuscaloosa Association of REALTORS®, its members, and the public is the collective responsibility of the leadership of the Association and its committees and staff. The Association serves as a champion and guardian of the rights of property owners; therefore, all presiding officers of the governing body and all of the committees should be especially sensitive as to what constitutes confidentiality.

1. A breach of confidentiality in sensitive matters shall be considered an offense against the Association. Such an offense will be handled as outlined in the section regarding “Disciplinary Procedures” in Robert’s Rules of Order – Newly Revised Edition; and may result in fines, censure, suspension or revocation of membership. Additionally, Association Members may be personally and individually legally liable for injury or damages that result from their unauthorized disclosure of confidential Association information.

2. It shall be the responsibility of the presiding officer of the governing body of the Association or any committee to identify the sensitivity of a particular matter and to excuse temporarily any person present who has no “need to know” the context of the matter for the duration of the discussion. (i.e. Extreme caution should be exercised.)

3. It shall be the responsibility of the presiding officer of the governing body of the Association or any committees to halt immediately any unnecessary spontaneous discussion, or digression in discussion, of any matter of a sensitive nature.

4. It shall be the responsibility of all members of a committee to be alert to the confidentiality of any subject and to call the matter to the attention of the presiding officer.

5. Salaries and personal employment information of Association Staff shall remain confidential.

6. The discussions at a Board Meeting, and the documents distributed therein, are confidential. The President of the Board speaks for the Association and no Director may assume authority to speak without having explicit authority.

CONFIDENTIALITY OF MEMBER FILES – information in the membership files maintained by the Association shall be deemed confidential and shall not be made available to members or others except to the extent required for proper administration of the Association, and then only upon authorization by the Chief Executive Officer. Any member may review his or her own file.

CONFLICTS OF INTEREST POLICY

In their capacity as officers, directors, members, employees, and volunteers, the individual leaders of TAR must act at all times in the best interests of TAR. Those who choose to serve as officers, directors, and committee members, or any other volunteers, are held to the highest standards of conduct. These individuals assume an obligation to subordinate individual interests to the interests of the Association.

Those who serve must do so without personal gain, without regard to personal relationships and without financial gain to their employers, and must behave in such a way so as to enhance member and public trust and confidence. These individuals must avoid any real conflicts of interest or improprieties. This may lead to a level of conduct beyond that appropriate for circumstances outside the organization.

A conflict of interest may arise in circumstances that may compromise the ability of an officer, director, member, employee, or volunteer to make unbiased and impartial decisions on behalf of TAR. Such circumstances may involve family relationships, business transactions, professional activities, or personal affiliations.

The key elements of this policy are the disclosure of circumstances which may give rise to a conflict or impropriety, the physical absence and non-participation in the decision making process that might lead to a potential conflict or impropriety, and the commitment to honor the confidentiality of Association information.

Any conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest on the part of any Board Member should be disclosed to the other Board Members and made a matter of record, either through an annual procedure or when the interest becomes a matter of board action.

Under no circumstances shall any member of the Executive Committee, Board of Directors, or Standing Committees participate in the evaluation or approval of any contractual arrangement of which may become a party, if such individual, or such individual's employer, would benefit financially, either directly or indirectly, from the Association becoming a party to such agreement.

Any Board Member having a conflict of interest or possible conflict of interest on any matter should not vote or use his/her personal influence on the matter, and he/she should not be counted in determining the quorum for the meeting. The minutes of the meeting should reflect that a conflict of interest disclosure was made, the abstention from voting, and the quorum situation.

Association members, the Board of Directors, officers, employees and volunteers are all responsible for reporting actual and potential conflicts of interest to the Chief Executive Officer and the President of the Association. The Chief Executive Officer and/or President may request additional information from any officer, director, member, employee, or volunteer at any time. The findings of the Chief Executive Officer and/or President shall be forwarded to the Board of Directors with a recommendation for action; however, no individual whose relationships or activities are under review may participate in deliberations, debate, or any vote of the Board of Directors while such review is pending.

If the Chief Executive Officer, President, and/or Board of Directors identifies an actual, potential, or apparent conflict of interest, the Board of Directors may take one of the following actions to resolve the conflict:

- Waive the conflict of interest as unlikely to affect the officer's, director's, member's, employee's, or volunteer's ability to act in the best interests of the Association;
- Determine that the individual officer, director, member, employee, or volunteer should be recused from all deliberation and decision-making related to the particular transaction or relationship that gives rise to the conflict of interest. This course of action should apply particularly when the transaction or relationship is one which presents a conflict only with respect to one or two discrete programs or activities; or
- Recommend that the individual officer, director, member, employee, or volunteer resign from his service to TAR. This course of action should apply when the conflict of interest is so pervasive that the officer, director, member, employee, or volunteer would seldom, if ever, be able to act solely in the best interests of the Association.

The Chief Executive Officer and/or President may refer any such matter to the Board of Directors at any time. The Board of Directors may overrule any recommendation by the Chief Executive Officer and/or President with regard to any actual, potential or apparent conflict of interest, and the Board of Directors reserves final authority over the resolution of all conflicts of interest.

RECORDS RETENTION POLICY

The purpose of this policy is to ensure that necessary records and documents are adequately protected and maintained, as well as to ensure that records that are no longer needed, or of no value, are discarded at the appropriate time.

Records that are relevant to litigation or potential litigation must be preserved until legal counsel advises that they are no longer needed. This includes audits, investigations, litigation, as well as notice of a claim or notice of potential litigation.

WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY

The Tuscaloosa Association of REALTORS® requires Directors, Officers, Members, Employees, and Volunteers to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As Employees and Representatives of the Association, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulatory requirements.

Reporting Responsibility: it is the responsibility of all Directors, Officers, Members, Employees, and Volunteers to comply with the Code of Ethics and to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with the Whistleblower Policy.

No Retaliation: no Director, Officer, Member, Employee or Volunteer who in good faith reports a violation of the Code of Ethics, law, or regulation requirement shall suffer harassment, retaliation or adverse employment consequence. A member or employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of membership and/or employment. This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable members, employees and others to raise serious concerns within the Association prior to seeking resolution outside of the Association.

Reporting Violations: TAR seeks to have an “Open Door” policy and suggests that members and employees share their questions, concerns, suggestions, or complaints with someone who can address them properly. In most cases, a member or employee should present his or her concerns to the Chief Executive Officer or President. However, if a member or employee is not comfortable speaking with the Chief Executive Officer or President or is not satisfied with the Chief Executive Officer’s or President’s response, the member or employee is encouraged to speak with anyone on the Board of Directors whom the member or employee is comfortable in approaching, or to directly contact the Association’s outside legal counsel, whose contact information can be obtained from the Association Executive.

Compliance Officer: the Chief Executive Officer, working with the President, will act as the Association’s Compliance Officer. The Compliance Officer is responsible for investigating and resolving all member and employee complaints and allegations concerning violations of the Code of Ethics. The President or his or her designee will take on the Compliance Officer role if the complaint involves the Chief Executive Officer. If the complaint involves both the Chief Executive Officer and President, outside legal counsel will carry out the functions of the Compliance Officer.

Accounting and Auditing Matters: the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors shall address all reported concerns or complaints regarding corporate accounting practices, internal controls or auditing. The Compliance Officer shall immediately notify the Executive Committee of any such complaint and work with the Executive Committee until the matter is resolved.

Requirement of Good Faith: anyone filing a complaint concerning a violation or suspected violation of the Code of Ethics, the law, or a regulation requirement must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a violation. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

Confidentiality: violations or suspected violations may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant or may be submitted anonymously. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

Handling of Reported Violations: the Compliance Officer, or the person responsible for carrying out the Compliance Officer’s role with respect to a reported or suspected violation, will acknowledge receipt of the reported violation or suspected violation by writing a letter (or email) to the complainant within five (5) business days. All reports will be promptly investigated and appropriate corrective action will be taken if warranted by the investigation.
