

CIVIL SERVICE BOARD APPLICATION FOR POLICE OFFICER

To all Applicants for POLICE OFFICER

RE: HB411 ACT #2021-268

Please read the following information carefully

HB411 ACT #2021-268 was signed by Governor Ivey on April 22, 2021, which now requires a full report of the law enforcement applicants Credit History, to be provided by the law enforcement applicant. You can contact the three (3) Credit Reporting Agencies in order to acquire such information as listed below. Once you have received your credit reports, you can turn your completed application into the Civil Service Board along with a copy of your driver's license and resume if so desired.

You may obtain a free copy of your credit report from each of the three major credit reporting agencies once every twelve months by visiting www.annualcreditreport.com or calling toll-free (877)-322-8228
